

Mechanical Engineering

Qualification:

- Graduated in S1 Mechanical Engineering / D4 Heavy Equipment / D3 Mechanical Engineering
- Strong analysis in design and re-design, development and implementation of IT applications
- Experience in enterprise grade solution is preferred
- Communicate your ideas through sketches, mockups, and interactive prototypes
- A quick learner with excellent time management and organization skills, with the ability to manage multiple competing priorities
- Fluent English language skills
- Able to work under required time and pressure
- Understand the mechanical excavator will be preferred.
- Passionate in AR/VR
- Stay in Yogyakarta, Indonesia

Responsibilities :

- Provide design and technical feedback on designs and participate in product team design sessions
- Work closely with 3D modelling and unity programmer to execute design
- Create components of application that match quality standards and built them within agreed time-frame
- Provide assistance in application testing and support during user acceptance testing

Marketing & Communications

Qualification:

- Bachelor's degree with a good track record of organization / extracurricular activity.
- Social media expert know how to craft good post for a different type of social media, and manage the account
- Able to craft a press release, and do necessary action (eg: contacting media) to make sure that it published.
- Able to communicate in English, both verbal and written.
- Able to keep track of office affairs including bills, supplies, cleanness, etc.
- Supporting type of person to help the CEO, and all of Arutala employees perform best in the working area.
- A make-thing-happen person who able to follow up any working issue

Responsibilities :

- Being the center of information management and distribution for both internal and external parties
- Manage documents, notes, and any important decision happens in the work zone
- Handle Office management to make sure its cleanness, comforts, supplies availabilities, that will boost the productivity of our team.
- Become the CEO assistant to help him make things happen in Arutala
- Create and manage external communication using our official channel such as Instagram, newsletters, facebook fan-page, LinkedIn page.
- Handle communication with clients, or stakeholders if necessary.

General Designer

Qualification:

- S1 Bachelor/Diploma degree in any major.
- Have work experience in the same field persistence fresh graduated are welcome.
- Technical design, wireframe, prototype, user research, and usability test skills are preferred.
- Expertise in Corel draw, Adobe Photoshop, Adobe Illustrator andd another supporting software.
- Have an exceptional portfolio of shipped products, containing samples of highly usable and beautiful solution that solve problems.
- Ultra-high attention to details.
- Strong passion in design and development.
- Proven experience in a similar role, user research, usability testing, as well as technical development skills will be a major plus.
- Able to work individual and team.
- Able to work under required time and pressure.
- Stay in Yogyakarta, Indonesia.
- Have own vehicle included SIM C.

Responsibilities :

- Plan and organize design for market communication needs.
- Plan and organize design for product development.
- Prepare design for promotional materials (banner, pamphlet, etc)
- Prepare design for social media.
- Design communicative slide show.
- Plan and organize the display booth for exhibition.

Product Development Internship

Qualification:

- Final grade of Undergraduate student in Information technology, Information System, Computer Science, Computer Engineering or any major related to AR Development, VR Development, Product Design and Development, and UI/UX Development.
- Internship program available for 3 Months (April - June 2020).
- Willing to learn and explore new things during internship program.
- Good problem-solving skills.
- Strong Communication and Presentation skills.
- Job Description will be explained in the interview.
- Placement in Arutala Office, Yogyakarta.

Business Development Internship

Qualification:

- Final grade of Undergraduate student in Accounting, Management, Communications, International Relations/Affairs, or any major related to Finance, Marketing Communication, Sales, Business Development, Corporate Secretary, and Public Relations.
- Internship program available for 3 Months (April-June 2020).
- Willing to learn and explore new things during internship program.
- Good problem-solving skills.
- Strong Communication and Presentation skills.
- Job Description will be explained in the interview.
- Placement in Arutala Office, Yogyakarta.